

Witney U3A Action Day

I was absolutely delighted to join U3A for their action day in Witney recently. U3A is a great organisation that operates nationally for older people. Members can benefit from a range of local activities, where they can socialise and learn new skills as well as larger national events.

I encourage all retired readers to head to their website and see what they offer: there really is something for everyone.